

Parking at the Center for Child & Family Well-Being (CCFW)

Kincaid Hall - 3751 W. Stevens Way NE Rm# 200A

When visiting CCFW (the red square on the map) for the first time please allow yourself at least 15-20 minutes to locate and pay for parking and walk to Kincaid Hall. The UW has pay-lots, parking garages, and limited metered street parking options available.

Please review the map below to locate the parking options and visit UW self-serve parking for more information. ADA details may be found at UW accessible parking.

1. Self-Serve: Public pay-station spots are located throughout campus. The closest lots to Kincaid Hall are W-27 and CPG (Central Plaza Garage). A Pay Meter is located in each lot. These machines take Visa, MasterCard and American Express as well as dollar coins or quarters. Pay by phone parking is also available at all self-serve parking lots. Follow the directions for the pay machine or gate arm at your lot. It is important to enter your license plate information accurately to avoid the risk of a citation. If you are required to display a parking permit, please put it on your dashboard and make sure it is visible from outside of the vehicle. Refunds are not available, and you may only park in labeled “pay-station” spaces.
2. Lot S-01 has a $6 flat rate fee after 4 p.m. Lots W-27, W-12, and W-35 cost $4/hour. You can always find parking in the Central Plaza Parking Garage (upper right hand corner of the map) for a flat rate fee of $12 after 4pm.
